HISTORY
DESCENDANTS OF JAMES PAUL
NORTHERN IRELAND

by Mammy Alice Paul

REVISED 1939

PREFACE

The Paul reunions began in 1903 at the old Philo Paul homestead, near Lone Pine, then occupied by John A. Paul. A movement was started to compile a history of the Paul descendants. In 1912 a booklet of 20 pages was printed, containing the genealogy that had been gathered by that time. Now in 1939 we are attempting to revise and add to that list such additional history as we have been able to collect, and make such changes as seem to us after further research, to be correct.

Some of the branches we have been unable to revise and have printed them with some additions as they were in the first edition; hoping to be able to trace them farther at a future time, or that they may be a starting place for those who have descended from them. The Warricks, as recorded in the 1912 edition, we find are descended from Elizabeth Slaught, sister of our ancestor Hannah Slaught, hence we have not continued them. Also the Hayner family were descendants of Phillip Slaught Jr., brother of Hannah Slaught Paul, Will Book, Vol. 7, Page 356, so discontinued them.

From "The Paul Genealogy" by the late Edward J. Paul of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, now in the hands of the State Historical Society, Madison, Wisconsin, we learn that Ann Paul married Andrew Sutton and Margaret Paul married John Slaught. Also Deed Book 7U, Page 505, Washington, Penna., County Court House.

To trace relationship, numbers and letters are used. Some of our ancestors have more than nine children. Where there are double numbers we use the alphabet, the tenth child being "A" the eleventh "B" etc. thus, 12B, Philo Paul, who was the eleventh child of 12; William Paul who was the second child of 1, James Paul, or this, 12A, William Paul was the tenth child of 12 William Paul, who was the second child of 1, James Paul. In this way we eliminate the hyphens as used in the former history.

We have placed the name of the Head of the preceding generations to the third or fourth generation at the beginning of each branch; thus - 1 James Paul m: Sarah Huston; 12 William Paul m: Hannah Slaught (Slack) 12b Philo Paul m: Sarah Hughes; 12b7 B. Frank Paul b: etc. shows that B. Frank Paul was the son of Philo Paul who was the son of William Paul who was the son of James Paul of Ireland.

We are indebted to the following members who have helped compile the data contained here in.

Miss Martha E. Malone, Mr. Wm. E. Miller, Mrs. Rudolph Acher, Miss Effie Gantz, Miss Lillian Paul, Mrs. Ethel Shipe, Mrs. Edwin Gaul, James Halden Paul, B. F. Paul, Dr. T. R. Foster, Mrs. Ott's Johnson, Mrs. Ray A. Burns, Mrs. Margaret Moninger Lindley, Mrs. Lawrence McCollough, Mrs. E. D. Day and others.

We have put forth our best efforts to make the History as full and far reaching as possible, and any omissions or discrepancies were not intentional on our part. Please note any mistakes or omissions in the records, as we hope to continue keeping them up to date as nearly as possible, and send correct information.

On behalf of the committee,
N. Alice Paul, Washington, Pennsylvania

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to acknowledge our debt of gratitude to Mattie Paul and all who in any way assisted her in compiling the 1912 edition of "The History of the Descendants of James Paul of Northern Ireland". Small as it was, without it as a starting place, this would have been a most arduous task.

Many facts in this edition are taken from notes she had gathered after the other one was printed. That booklet when sent out among the relatives brought many letters which have been helpful in compiling this one.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT THE PAUL REUNION SEPTEMBER 5, 1927

Whereas the progenitors of this Paul Family are known to have been God-fearing men and women who were careful to "remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy", and whereas we the living representatives of this honorable line, have a great desire to maintain the high standards of our forefathers, and

Whereas there is at this time a very deplorable tendency to make the Lord's Day a common day on which the people may turn to business, to amusements and to social activities be it resolved that we, the Paul Family in annual reunion assembled, place ourselves on record as opposed to any weakening or breaking down in the matter of strict and respectful observance of the Sabbath Day and in harmony with this resolution be it further

Resolved that this family shall not schedule for Sunday any of our reunions, but for those delightful social gatherings, we shall take from the time that is properly our own.

EXTRACTS FROM A LETTER WRITTEN TO B. F. PAUL. WASHINGTON, PENNSYLVANIA

In 1907 a letter from F. G. Paul who, with his brother Hugh Paul, was in the wholesale grocery business in Washington, N. C. gave the following:

In 1700 a man named James Paul, an Irishman, left his native country and located in Scotland. He raised a family, out of which two sons, Zacheus and James came to this country sometime between 1750 and 1775.

Zacheus settled in what is now Pamplico Co., in the eastern part of North Carolina. James Paul settled somewhere in the northern states, and I never heard what became of him.

Zacheus my great grandfather raised a family of about five children, in which there were two sons named Zacheus and James. Zacheus married and raised nine children, four boys and five girls. The boys were: William, Jesse, David and John Franklin. They all married and raised large families, from seven to twelve children. F. G. and Hugh Paul are sons of John Franklin Paul.

Strange to say, all the offspring of my great grandfather, as far as I know, are still living within fifty miles of the home of the first settler. I think I could give the names of at least three hundred living offspring of my great grandfather.

I will give you some of the traits of character that are peculiar to our Paul family: They are generally honest and truthful, none are very wealthy and no paupers, they stand well in their community, are good neighbors, good husbands and fathers; there are no drunkards. As a rule they are cautious, not quick to act on schemes and wildcat speculations. Most of them incline to the free will Baptist Church. The average life is about seventy years. (Is Zacheus Paul a brother to our James Paul?)

HISTORICAL SKETCH

James Paul born in Ireland married Sarah Huston and set sail in February 1770 for America. They landed in May, settling in New Jersey. He was a weaver by trade. His children were born in New Jersey. From there they came to Western Pennsylvania where they settled and many of their descendants still live in Washington County. A number have gone west and so far as we know there are branches of the family in many of the states both east and west. It is interesting to know that the first James Paul's father was one of those in the northern part of Ireland who was persecuted with the Campbells and others for their religious views.

James Paul and wife may have come from Kellswater congregation of the Scotch-Irish Presbyterian Church at Ballymoney County, Antrim. They had four children, Ann, William, Sarah and Margaret. James Paul served as a private in Captain Howell's Co. Third Battalion, Washington County, Pennsylvania, Militia, War of the Revolution. He died in 1780 on the farm in Amwell Township. A copy of his will has been handed down and is now framed and in the possession of Mary and Alice Paul, Washington, Pennsylvania.

The farm mentioned in this will is perhaps a tract of one hundred and fifty-five acres in Amwell Township, about one mile south-east of Amity and was formerly known as "Townsend", Deed Book I - Q, Page 22. On July 9, 1789, his widow married John Reese, as we learn from their marriage certificate, which has been preserved and a copy of which follows:

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

"This may certify that this day John Reese and Sarah Paul, both of the Township of Amwell and County of Washington and State of Pennsylvania, were joined together in marriage and pronounced lawful husband and wife by me, David Sutton, Minister of the Gospel at Bethlehem Township.

"As witness our hands this ninth day of July, 1789.

In the presence of us,

Joseph Ginnings

Prycilla Gaddis

Thomas Reese

• John Reese died in February or March, 1821 (Will Book Vol. 3, Page 403). His second wife's son, William Paul was made one of the executors. She is not mentioned in the will, so she probably died first.

JAMES PAUL'S WILL

In the name of God Amen: I, James Paul, of Washington County, being sick and weak, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God, but calling to mind that it is appointed for all men once for to die. Do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

"First of all, I do commit my soul to God, that gave it to me, and my body to the earth to be buried in a christian like manner, by my executors here after named, and first of all I do allow all my debts, which I have lawfully contracted, to be paid. And likewise my funeral expenses. And then I do leave to Sarah Paul, my well beloved wife, all my goods and chattels, moveable and immovable, and all my land, to such time as my son William Paul comes of age. And then for the said Sarah Paul, for to have the third of all during her life. But at her decease, for her third of all, to be given to the said William Paul, and for the said William Paul, and the executors, hereafter appointed by me, for to value the said one third of all, and to divide it equally between his three sisters Ann Paul, Sarah Paul and Margaret Paul. And if so be that it would please God for the said William Paul for to die, that then all the land and effects is to be divided equally between the said sisters; and for them to get the same as they come to age, and I do appoint John Reese and Sarah Paul to be Executors over my said children, and that which I leave to them.

And then being read before me I do enter change put my hand and seal, and with my right mind and senses, this tenth day of June in the year of our Lord 1786.

"Witnesses being present.

126 Andrew Sutton Paul b: May 23, 1812 on farm 1 mi. S.E. Amity, Wash. Co., Pa., d. June 28, 1898, bu. Battle Mt. Nev. m. Sept. 5, 1833 Ann Walton (b. April 17, 1815, dau. of Jonathan Walton b. June 16, 1777, d. Sept. 10, 1855, and his wife, Kaziah, b. 1778, d. Jan. 1, 1857. Owing to failing health she returned to the home of her father in Washington Co., Pa., where after a lingering illness she died May 5, 1847, and was buried in the old cemetery near Ten-Mile Baptist Church. The first years of their married life they lived at Amity. Then with the trend of immigration they went down the Ohio River to Rising Sun, Ind. While there he plied a flat boat on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers between Cincinnati and New Orleans. Later he located at Friendship, Ind., and engaged in the mercantile business with his brother, Daniel Paul. This town was first named Paultown for the two brothers, then changed to Harts Mills, then to Friendship, Ind. 2nd m. Dec. 16, 1849, Jennette Maria Wilson. Friendship, Ind. Being of a roving disposition in the early fifties he left his home unknown to his family. When found years later by his sons, John B. and Thomas W., he was living in Virginia City, Nev. He died on a large ranch at Argenta, Nev., in the Humbolt Valley. 1st wife 1261 Sarah; 1262 William Wallace b: 1838, d 1840; 1263 America; 1264 Eleanor Virginia; 1265 John Benson; by 2nd wife 1266 Thomas Wilson.

In the spring of 1858 with two children they went to Iowa. Where they had taken up land in Madison C., near Winterset. The Mississippi River was crossed by ferry. The western terminus of the B. M. R. R. (now the C. B. & Q.) was Mt. Pleasant. The journey from there was made by stage. On account of mud they had to stop in Jefferson Co., Iowa, where they located on a farm eight miles from Fairfield. A one-roomed log cabin was their home. The red man often rode to the door on his pony asking for food. They lived for over 50 years on a farm overlooking this first location. 12611 John; 12612 William b. The first of these is the fact that the United States is a young nation, and that its history is a history of growth and expansion. The second is the fact that the United States is a nation of immigrants, and that its history is a history of the struggle for assimilation and the creation of a new American identity. The third is the fact that the United States is a nation of diverse peoples, and that its history is a history of the struggle for equality and the recognition of the rights of all citizens.

The fourth is the fact that the United States is a nation of great natural resources, and that its history is a history of the struggle for the conservation of these resources and the development of a sustainable economy. The fifth is the fact that the United States is a nation of great scientific and technological achievement, and that its history is a history of the struggle for progress and the improvement of the human condition.

The sixth is the fact that the United States is a nation of great cultural and artistic achievement, and that its history is a history of the struggle for the preservation of these achievements and the promotion of a vibrant and diverse culture. The seventh is the fact that the United States is a nation of great political and social achievement, and that its history is a history of the struggle for democracy and the improvement of the lives of all citizens.

The eighth is the fact that the United States is a nation of great military and naval achievement, and that its history is a history of the struggle for peace and the defense of the world. The ninth is the fact that the United States is a nation of great economic and industrial achievement, and that its history is a history of the struggle for prosperity and the improvement of the standard of living for all citizens.

WM. EDWIN MILLER

ATTORNEY AT LAW

411-4 J. M. S. BUILDING
SOUTH BEND 1, INDIANA

December 2, 1958.

Newberry Library,
Walton Street,

Chicago, Ill. A couple of days ago I was in your Genealogical Division examining your records for information on the Denman, Clutter and Paul families also Van Meter. I found very little on the Paul Family. In my conversation with the deputy-librarian in charge of the desk, I told her that I would send to your Library a booklet entitled "History of Descendants of James Paul of Northern Ireland" by N. (Nancy) Alice Paul of 241 Locust Avenue, Washington, Penna. (my 2nd cousin). (As stated on page 9, I supplied the data for pages 9 to 20 - descendants of my grandfather, James Paul, grandson of the original James Paul "of Northern Ireland". That was 20 years ago: "Cousin Alice" and I have since grown old - she still resides at same address, aged 83, and I, same address - see page 20 - aged -almost - 88).

It seems most improbable that the American Pauls - of the older generation - not mentioned in this booklet, are related to our Pauls, at least we know nothing of the relatives of the original immigrant, James Paul "of Northern Ireland" or of his wife Sarah Huston. (It will be observed that the original American Paul had only the one son, William Paul, my grandfather, James Paul, being his oldest child; so, most of the American "Pauls" do not bear that name but this booklet may supply a "lead" to other descendants of the original Paul through the female lines.

Respectfully,

Wm Edwin Miller

(Note relative to the Van Meter family: See "Duke, Shepherd, van Meter Family-lies" by Samuel Gordon Smythe - which is in Newberry Library). It will show that the original Van Meter landed in 1662 at New Amsterdam and settled at, near Kingston, N.Y. Henry Van Meter of Washington Co., Penna is shown to be his descendant - in about the 3rd or 4th generation, I believe - That Henry had son Henry (Jr.) who had a daughter "Elsie" or Alice. She married Azariah Lavi and they had 7(?) children. I have in my family-files a fairly complete list of their descendants - with, generally, dates and places of births, deaths, burials, marriages etc. - as of near 30 years ago. - probably 3000 of them -, and - sad to admit - it is the only record now in existence of that widely-scattered Family, and was gathered by many years of intensive correspondence and research. I am more than half inclined to believe that every Van Meter I have ever known or heard of in America is a descendant of that original immigrant from Holland, "Jan Joosten van Meteren", at least I have never failed in an attempt to trace the connection. (I hope that some day - if I ever get too old to practice law - to make a condensed copy of that Van Meter MS, and send you a "fair-copy".
